why you should hire me...

Her quick wit and spontaneous dialogue, with an ability to add-lib when needed, brings a very entertaining and exciting vibe to any event.

With a professional and punctual work ethic and a happy and fun personality, the naturally funny Suzi can combine roles as both your occasions MC and light entertainment.

She moves from comedy to straight presenting and back again and can cater to any style of event. From sit down corporate dinners, to rewing up a crowd to donate money at charity galas.

Suzi is the whole package when it comes to needing a strong, sophisticated, glamorous and charming MC/Host or presenter for your next event.

"Absolutely an outstanding presenter. I love how Suzi embraces her audience and makes any event thrive with joy and fun. I super recommend Suzi for any MC Or presentation work!!"

"Suzi MC'd a fundraising comedy night event for Agape Outreach recently. The night went superbly well due to Suzi's professionalism in doing her craft. She was able to keep the guests engaged throughout the show, excited about the various raffles we put on, as well as entertained via a comedy routine she performed on the night. Upon leaving, guests mentioned that they had a great night, and that was in part due to Suzi's presence on and off the stage. We would certainly love to work with Suzi again on another project in the future."

"Suzi Dent is the host of the live talk show that I produce, The Couch Outloud.

These shows are scripted, but also require the host to be able to improvise. Suzi's personable approach and ability to actively listen and respond within this live format is imperative to the success of the show. Suzi's ability to connect with the array of eclectic guest speakers is credit to her empathetic and adaptable style.

I have had fantastic feedback from our guest speakers and audience members about the authenticity and warmth that they have experienced with Suzi as the host of the show.

Suzi's energy and wit captures the attention of the audience members and has left them wanting to come back for more.

Suzi's intelligent humour and high energy leaves a lasting impression on everyone as does her ability to make you feel uplifted inspired and empowered.

I look forward to working more with Suzi in 2020 and beyond!"
